

Stone Cold

A young homeless boy, who calls himself Link, tells the story of how he became homeless and about his life on the streets.

We also hear from Shelter; a middle aged man who has been discharged from the army. He talks of his dislike for the homeless and how he plans to deal with them.

Sentence Types

Simple – One main idea. Makes sense.

'It was raining.'

Compound – Two simple sentences (clauses) joined by a connective. Both clauses make sense on their own.

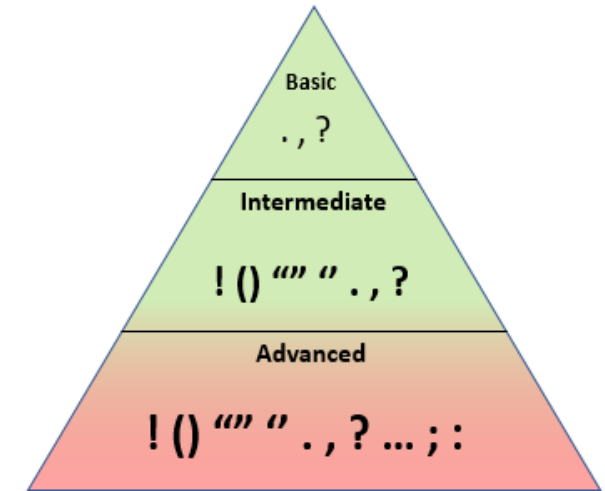

'It was raining so we stayed indoors.'

Complex – Communicates more than one idea. It is made up of one main clause (can stand alone) and one subordinate clause (doesn't make sense alone).

'As it was raining, we all decided to stay indoors.'

We can take away the second part, but then we are left with: As it was raining.

Now this is not a simple sentence as it doesn't stand on its own - it needs something else to make sense.
