Plurals

Remember! To make a noun plural add -s to the end of the word. If the noun ends in 'eau' then add -x instead.

Remember, do not pronounce them !

Grammar

- ✓ Using un, une, des – the indefinite article + some
- ✓ Using le, la, les – the definite article
- ✓ Using plurals
- ✓ Er verbs – present tense
- ✓ Making adjectives agree
- ✓ Position of adjectives

er – verbs

It is very important that you know how to form verbs correctly in French.

Make sure you know what each subject pronoun means.

Now make sure you know the verb ending that goes with each pronoun.

je	I	j'aime
tu	You	tu aimes
il	he	il aime
elle	she	elle aime
on	'one'	on aime
nous	We	nous aimons
vous	You	vous aimez
ils	They (m)	ils aiment
elles	They (f)	elles aiment

'A'

' the indefinite article'

Have you noticed that there are two words for 'a' in French? un une

All French nouns are categorised as either masculine or feminine.

un stylo masculine a pen

une gomme feminine a rubber

The word for some is des.

des stylos plural some pens

'The'

' the definite article'

Have you noticed that there are four words for 'the' in French? le la l' les

le = the for masculine nouns

le stylo = the pen

la = the for feminine nouns

la gomme = the rubber

l' = the for word that begin with a vowel or h l'élève = the student

les = the for plural words

les élèves = the students

Making adjectives agree

Remember you may need to add an extra -e to adjective when describing a feminine noun.

e.g. une souris noire

If the adjective already ends in e you don't have to.

If you are describing more than one adjectives add an s

Adjectives

Remember that adjectives come after the word they are describing.

e.g. un chien noir (a dog black)

To get the correct form of 'er' verbs in the present tense take the infinitive and knock off the 'er' at the end of the word. Now add the right ending.
e.g. You want to say 'he eats'. Use the verb 'manger'. Knock off the 'er' = mang. He = il + mang + e = il mange = he eats.
