

The Earth Exam Style Questions 1

1. The image of the statue below shows erosion over a period of time.

- Describe one visible difference between the two images.
- Name the stone that the statue could be made from.
- Name the type of erosion shown.
- What does porous mean?

2. The image below shows ways carbon can move through the carbon cycle.

What are processes A, B and C?

A -

B -

C -

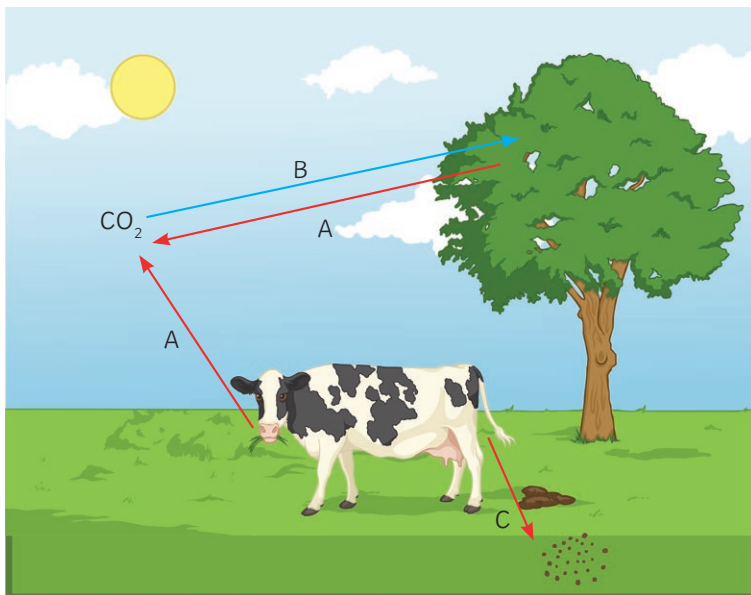

Which part of the carbon cycle is missing?

The Earth Exam Style Questions 1 Answers

1. The image of the statue below shows erosion over a period of time.

- Describe one visible difference between the two images. The features of the statue have been eroded.
 - Name the stone that the statue could be made from. Limestone
 - Name the type of erosion shown. Chemical
 - What does porous mean? A rock that allows water to move through it.
2. The image below shows ways carbon can move through the carbon cycle.

What are processes A, B and C?

- A - Respiration
- B - Photosynthesis
- C - Decomposition

Which part of the carbon cycle is missing? Combustion