Further information:

- All activities will be held at Oasis Academy Wintringham with the exception of the swimming lessons.
- Swimming lessons will take place at Signhills Academy pool. Participants will be transported by the Academy minibus to and from the venue. There are two sessions per day (10.00am and 11.30am sessions). If your child is attending the 10.00am session, they will need to arrive at the Academy for 9.30am. If your child is attending the 11.30am session your child will need to arrive at reception for 11.00am. Your child is more than welcome to stay after their lesson and attend one of our other activities once they return. Your child will only be able to go on one of the swimming sessions per day. Please note that swimming is only running on Monday 19th and Tuesday 20th and has a limited number of places.
- Snacks, drinks, and a hot lunch are all included free of charge each day.
- Please register each day at OAW main reception for all activities. Please bring with you your HAF voucher that will be distributed through your school.
- Activities are open to children of mixed ages, please see activities timetable.
- Please note there is an age restriction for the fitness activity: Students in Year 9 or above may participate.
- Your child can attend for as few or as many of these days as they would like.

BOOK to secure your child's place NOW!

Please complete and submit the booking, medical and consent form below by Friday 16th December:
